from the 8th June 1905. But he seems to have been away at Mysore from the 13th in connection with the Maharaja's birth-day celebrations. (vide Ltr No 289 of 04) The DS can't speak of "some special duty at Mysore" for which Mr Browning was "like to be deputed. Let us have something more than mere surmise. As certain from the Revenue Branch, if an order of deputation has been passed.
If not, we must ask the DS to report the circumstances under which Mr Browning apparently overstayed his leave.

6/7/05

Subd? The Revenue Branch says that no order deputing Mr Browning for any special duty at Mysore between the 13th and 22nd June has been passed by that Branch. A draft as above directed is held for approval.

Kolar District

Sir

With reference to your circular no: 9319 dated C 157-15 28th July 1905 copy of which was forwarded to me in Deputy Commissioner's memo no: 12 dated 30-7-05 enquiring as to who authorized me to go on Special duty and whether I obtained the permission of the Deputy Commissioner to go on such duty, I have the honor to to state that I went on Special duty under the orders of the Dewan of Mysore communicated to me by means of a D.O. from that officer.

The D.O. letter is however mislaid and a reference may be made to that officer if necessary.

I personally communicated the wishes of the Dewan to the Deputy Commissioner and obtained his permission to go to Mysore on Special duty at the expiration of the 5 days casual leave granted to me.

In consequence of this, the Deputy Commissioner reported to Government that my absence from the Court would extend to more than 5 days and recommended that the Officer presiding over this Court should be invested with Summary Powers to enable him to cope with the work.

I have the honor to be

Sir
